

TRICK TO DECEIVE BISMARCK WOMEN VOTERS IS EMPLOYED BY LEAGUE CITY ORGANIZERS

"Sign Your Ballot," They Tell
Anti-Townley Women, a Method
Which Would Destroy the Vote.

WOMEN OF CITY WARNED

A trick to cheat women of Bismarck, who wish to vote the anti-Townley, anti-socialist ticket at the election, out of their vote is being employed by Nonpartisan league organizers in the city.

The trick was exposed when one woman, who wishes to vote the anti-Townley ticket, made inquiries to find out if she should put her name on the ballot when she voted.

"A Nonpartisan league talker came to me and wanted me to vote the league ticket," she explained. "I told her I was firmly against the league. Before leaving, she said, 'Well, if you are going to vote you want to vote right—so don't forget to put your name on the ballot.'"

Would Destroy Ballot
Anyone who puts his or her name on the ballot loses his or her vote.

Every woman in the city who wishes to vote against the league is warned by anti-Townley leaders against such tactics as these.

The secrecy of the ballot has been one of the prized principles of every state in the country. The Townley forces have made attacks on this principle, and have failed. The absent voter's amendment, proposed by the league and voted down by the people last June, was calculated to defeat the secrecy of the ballot.

Five league organizers an opportunity to coerce people into voting in their presence.

This falsehood of the league organizer to a woman of Bismarck is typical of the campaign being conducted in Bismarck and in Burlington county. Every known trick and method of deception is being employed by the league.

The vicious attack on Miss Nielson in the leaflet "Martyred Minnie" is a sample of the tactics employed. Other vicious lies have been peddled in the county to deceive voters.

RESIDENCE OF YEAR IN STATE VOTERS' RULE

Ninety Days in County and 30

Again Tuesday

Every voter who has not registered for the coming election, either at the primary or at the registration held last week, has one more opportunity. There will be registration on Tuesday week before election.

The qualifications for voters, a subject of discussion, is as follows: 90 days in county and 30 days in the precinct. These requirements were adopted by a vote of the people.

About 100 absent voters ballots have been obtained from the county auditor's office for use in Burlington county. The applicant for an absent voter's ballot must make an affidavit that he will be out of the county on Nov. 2 and the ballot must be returned in time to be delivered to the voting places on election day.

G. O. P. SPENDS $2,500,000

Socialist Fund is Placed at $50
in Preliminary Figures

Washington, Oct. 23.—The Democratic national committee has expended $699,071.69 in the national campaign up to Oct. 21, says a report filed with the clerk of representatives today by Wilbur Marsh, the committee treasurer.

Total receipts were placed at $677,134.87. This compared with total receipts of $2,468,019.54 and expenditures of $2,741,503.34 by the Republican national committee, as shown by a statement late yesterday by Treasurer Fred E. Upham.

Governor Cox was listed as a subscriber to the Democratic fund to the amount of $5,000. Other subscribers were: Charles R. Crane, New York, and Thomas L. Lewis, Madison, Wis., $5,000 each; Thomas F. Ryan and Nathan Strauss, New York, $5,000 each.

Socialist Fund
The socialist party national campaign committee reported total contributions for the national campaign of $51,028.24, and disbursements of $48,478.86 up to Oct. 21. The only contributions of more than $1,000 were from labor organizations.

Other contributors to the Democratic campaign were:
B. M. Baruch, of New York, and Joseph E. Willard, ambassador to Spain, $5,000 each; Col. E. M. House, Senator Glass, of Virginia, Secretary Colby and Norman E. Mack, $500 each.

The Democratic national congressional committee reported total receipts of $13,435.75, including $3,000 in loans and disbursements of $12,151.61. Among the contributors were: Thomas F. Ryan, $5,000 and $2,500 advanced from the national committee.

The largest contribution to the Democratic campaign fund, according to the treasurer's report, was $2,000, by H. A. R. Wroe, Austin, Tex.

The second largest was $10,000 by Hemmings Peale, Carrollton, Pa., a former official of the federal fuel administration.

DUNN COUNTY'S COUNTY FIGHT BEFORE COURT

Auditor Wants to Put Question of Removal of County Seat
Before Voters

The supreme court today affirmed the district court of Dunn county, Judge Crawford presiding, prohibiting the question of removing the county seat of Dunn county from being placed before the voters on Nov. 2.

Dunn county's county seat fight is now before the supreme court, it came before the court on the petition of the county commissioners, who want the county auditor restrained from placing the question of removing the county seat from Manning to Dunn Center on the ballot at the November election.

The county seat removal is becoming a prominent question at nearly every election in Dunn county. Dunn Center, Killdeer, Warner and Halliday all want to be the county seat, while Manning, a smaller place than any of the others, holds on to the honor through the jealousy between the other towns, particularly Dunn Center and Killdeer.

The county seat fight warmed up last May when those wanting removal of the county seat filed petitions with the commissioners to have the question voted on. Petitions were filed asking removal to Killdeer, Dunn Center, Warner and Halliday. It was claimed that no petition contained three-fifths of the votes cast at the last election in the county, and the commissioners held no petition sufficient. Judge Pugh issued a peremptory order requiring commissioners to hold a meeting on June 19. An election was held, the fight being between Dunn Center and Manning, and the majority was in favor of retaining the county seat at Manning.

County Auditor C. J. Hennings is preparing to submit the question to the voters on Nov. 2. He admits, in answer to the petition of the county commissioners, that he is preparing to put the matter on the ballot, under decision of district court. He denies the cost will be great, however, saying it will not exceed $75.00.

MILLINERS GIVE HAT TO MRS. HARDING

This hat and scarf have been selected as the campaign gift of the Trimmings Hat Association of American Milliners to Mrs. Warren G. Harding. The sectional tam combination is made of imperial Persian braid and Scotch mole, while on the right side of the duvetyen bandeau is a large gold pin with a jade center. The Scotch mole scarf can be transformed into a purse which buckles over the arm. The artist had adjusted the hat and scarf on a recent portrait of Mrs. Harding.

KING OF GREECE SERIOUSLY ILL

CAMPAIGN OF OPPRESSION IS USED BY LEAGUE ORGANIZERS IN FIGHT THROUGH WEST OF RIVER TERRITORY

"We Will Win by Bullets if not by Ballot," Organizers are Reported to Have Said—Townley's Autocratic Statements
Lose Him Votes

The campaign of oppression being conducted by Arthur C. Townley's followers has reached the height of intensity in counties west of the Missouri river, according to persons who travel through those counties.

The heaviest of business men threat being used, and a boycott of neighbors is also carried on in a fierce manner. Even in the counties which have in the past been strongly pro-league the organizers of the league are adopting autocratic methods.

The method used in Dunn county is to land several strong leagues in an automobile and visit the farmers. A farmer who refuses to give a $10 for a membership, or pledge himself to the league is threatened with a boycott by his neighbors in doing his work.

The methods may have much to do with the loss of votes, but it is also reported that many farmers have been alienated by these tactics.

At a meeting held in Gladstone, Stark county, Mrs. Zimmerman, a league organizer, is reported to have told women of Russian birth in a speech:

"You must vote the Nonpartisan league ticket, for if we don't win with the ballot this fall, we are going to win with bullets."

Townley, during his western organization and campaign tour, was particularly vicious in his speeches. At Dunn Center he is quoted as saying:

"I'm getting tired of seeing all these organizers around here collecting your money. Now I'm going to hold you responsible for the money you've given."

The league said not only to have solidified opposition but to have alienated many farmers.

VOTING SCHOOL WILL BE HELD ALL NEXT WEEK

Men and Women of City Invited to Attend Classes of Instruction

Women of Bismarck are to have an opportunity next week to hear election laws and the ballot explained.

The anti-Townley, anti-socialist campaign committee today announced that a voting school will be conducted in the Knights of Columbus hall, on Fourth street, opposite the new Guaranty Bank building.

Speakers will be present to explain the laws and ballot. Both men and women are invited to attend. The classes will be conducted at the following hours: 10:30 a. m.; 12:30 p. m.; 3:00 p. m.; 7:30 p. m.; 9:00 p. m.

No many confusing explanations have been given that hundreds of men and women in the city want to know exactly how to vote their convictions on election day. The opportunity is being afforded by the committee, which invites everyone to be present.

An indication of the interest and eagerness of women to obtain an explanation of the ballot is shown in the attendance of 60 to 70 women at the Daughters of Isabella school last night.

OFFER TO SELL WATER COMPANY PLANT IS MADE

Company Proposes That the Method of Sale Provided in City Charter be Used

The Bismarck Water Supply company today offered to sell its plant to the city of Bismarck.

In an order drawn up this published by the attorneys for the company, Miller, Zuger and Tiltonson, the company proposes to have a price named on the plant by a board of arbitration.

It says that litigation up to date over the water plant has cost $20,000, still is in the process of litigation and soon $30,000 will have been added.

"It is the opinion of the water company that in the end both the water company and the people will be losers if this policy of long drawn-out, expensive litigation is to be continued," says the company announcement.

It says that the proposed method of sale is provided in the water company's charter from the city, namely, that the city name one arbitrator, the company one and the two select a third. If the two cannot agree on a third the United States district court judge shall name him.

The company says that it will sell the plant at the price fixed by the board, and will accept 7 percent bonds of the city for the purchase price. If, at the end of one year, the city can get cheaper money, it may redeem the bonds at face value, it adds.

The water company offers to pay half of the cost of litigation.

It is considered probable that the city commission will discuss the offer of the water company at the regular meeting on Monday night.

BAN ON DANCES AFTER MIDNIGHT BRINGS PROTEST

Ashley Post of American Legion
Criticizes Action of City Council

Vigorous protest is entered by the American Legion protest of Ashley against an ordinance adopted by the city council prohibiting dancing between midnight and 2:30 a. m., according to information furnished The Tribune by F. J. Rummelle, service officer, who was directed by the post to give publicity to the resolution.

The resolution adopted by the post follows:

Whereas, The Honorable City Council of the City of Ashley, McIntosh County, North Dakota, has passed its Ordinance No. 28 attempting to prohibit dancing between the hours of 12 o'clock midnight and 2:30 o'clock a. m., which was duly approved by the Honorable City Mayor, and:

Whereas, In the opinion of Frank Piper Post No. 53 of the American Legion this ordinance was passed to curb the personal liberties of the young men and women of the City of Ashley, and:

Whereas, The said ordinance is an American in every respect and is characteristic of the laws which our fathers and mothers came to this country to get away from and to enjoy the liberties of our country, and:

Whereas, We deem it detrimental to the honor of the younger class of people of the City of Ashley for the reason that it will tend to cause them to do things that are really immoral;

Now Therefore, Be it and it is hereby resolved by the Frank Piper Post No. 53 of the American Legion of Ashley, North Dakota, that we condemn this action on the part of the Honorable City Council and the Mayor of the City of Ashley, for the reasons set forth, and:

Be it further resolved that this resolution be spread on the minutes of this meeting of the Frank Piper Post No. 53, American Legion, and:

Rev. Frederick Ruff, Pastor of Memorial Methodist Church, Dies Instantly When Dealer Says He Mistook Him for Burglar.

MAN WHO SHOT ARRESTED

Chicago, Oct. 2.—The Rev. Frederick Ruff, pastor of the Memorial Methodist church, and owner of an apartment building in Rogers park, was shot and killed this morning by Fred Sextro, one of his tenants.

Sextro, the manager of a coal company, told the police he mistook the minister for a burglar. He was arrested, however, while police investigate reports of trouble between Rev. Ruff and his tenants.

The Rev. Ruff was summoned before the council committee investigating rent profiteering several weeks ago on complaint of his tenants. Recently the tenants have posted signs in their windows bearing the words: "Unfair landlord." Mr. Ruff and his family occupied one of the first floor apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruff and their children had started to motor on a weekend trip when the minister discovered he had left the keys to his automobile in the house. He returned for them and an instant later his family heard the shot.

Although his apartment is on the first floor his body was found on the second floor landing. Sextro told the police he heard someone tumbling at his door and demanded to know who was there. Receiving no answer he said he opened the door and fired.

BAN RELATIVES OF MACSWINEY FROM CHAMBER

Home Office Says Mayor's Condition
Necessitates Isolation

London, Oct. 23.—The bulletin of the Irish self-determination league on Lord Mayor's MacSwiney's condition says the league has been informed that he was in about the same state as yesterday. He was unconscious, the information said. However, added the statement, the home office has placed an embargo on the use of the telephone for communicating news to the outside and has forbidden the Lord Mayor's sisters, Mary and Annie, to visit him.

The home office explained the denial of admission to the Lord Mayor's sister as being due only to the belief that their visits interfered with the careful nursing which the prisoner's extremely delicate condition required.

Lord Mayor MacSwiney's condition continues critical, said the home office announcement, but the scurry has been slightly remedied.

In its report of the sinking condition of the mayor at noon the Exchange Telegraph company said that Mrs. MacSwiney was with the mayor at that hour and that Father Dominick, his private chaplain, also visited him.

ganized labor than exposing, punishing and ejecting from its council the wolves and vultures who have been fattening on its vitals.

This statement was made today at the continuation of the inquiry by Samuel Untermeyer, committee counsel in branding as "a tissue of wilful falsehoods cunningly calculated to mislead the public" statements issued at the close of yesterday's hearing at which witnesses testified that a $25,000 bethe had been paid to end building trade strikes here. One of the post-session statements to which Mr. Untermeyer took exception was to the effect that organized labor was being "framed."

It will indeed be a sorry day for organized labor when even exposed crook operating under the shield of the great cause of organized labor can cover his tracks and rally the ranks of labor to his support by the fact that the exposure of his wrongdoing came in the back of labor and attacks on the institution that we are trying to rescue from his sordid clutches," continued Mr. Untermeyer.

MOVING INCIDENTS

A period of moving came upon the city when the Thomas Hall family moved from their location at 111 Avenue A which was immediately re-occupied by the H. L. Wheelers of 925 5th St. The Halls moving to a permanent home in the Lambert place on 12 Avenue B. This necessitated the removal of the J. E. Golderman family to the other Lambert place just around the corner on Sixth street, a house recently vacated by W. J. Prater and family who have taken up their residence in the Dahl cottage at 623 Fifth street. The E. G. Gormans had just vacated the Dahl place to occupy the Halloran house at 201 First street, recently vacated by H. R. Bonny who had selected an apartment in the F. J. Oeltjen apartment house at 104 Avenue C west.

LOCAL U. C. T. GET LETTER ON WHEAT PRICES

Secretary of Agriculture Meredith Writes That Trade Commission is Investigating

Members of the Bismarck local U. C. T. are taking an active interest in the stabilizing of wheat prices and are seeking to assist the farmers in having a speedy solution of the situation.

At a recent meeting a committee composed of J. C. Oberg, W. J. Reibold and J. D. Heslow were selected to bring the matter to the attention of Secretary of Agriculture, Meredith. The committee is in receipt of the following letter:

"I have received, by reference from the White House your telegram concerning the present conditions in the wheat market. Many letters and telegrams of similar import have been received recently.

"You will be interested to know that the President has asked the Federal Trade commission immediately to ascertain whether the recent decline in prices is due to manipulation or control or to other artificial causes. At the same time the Department of Agriculture is endeavoring to secure all available information regarding the world's supply and demand and the importation of Canadian wheat into this country. As soon as these data are in final shape they will be made available to the public and, of course, whatever action can or should be taken will necessarily depend upon the result of the inquiries which are now under way.

"I fully appreciate the situation confronting the farmers of the Nation and I have repeatedly urged, as you know, that they should receive adequate prices for their products—prices which will enable them to continue to produce, to meet the food requirements of the nation, and to provide a satisfactory living for themselves and their families. The existing situation with reference to the marketing of agricultural products involves many difficult and complex problems and many factors enter into it. It requires the best thought and action on the part of all those who are interested in the maintenance and development of our great basic industry and I assure you that the Department will continue to do everything possible to aid in its solution."

HILDRETH REFERS TO BOYCOTT OF LEAGUE BOSS

Minot, N. D., Oct. 23.—The threat of A. C. Townley to organize the farmers and laboring men of North Dakota and boycott North Dakota merchants if the Nonpartisan league fails to win the election Nov. 2 may get the league head and his associates into trouble with the United States court.

At the federal court term here yesterday afternoon Attorneys Pisk and Murphy of Minot were arguing a demurrer in the case against State's Attorney Ivan Metzger and two other Williams county men who are charged with conspiring to deprive a citizen of his property.

In opposing the demurrer, District

Attorney Hildreth explained why the federal court takes action in such cases. He said that at the present time in North Dakota a political leader is making threats of a boycott against a certain class of citizens and if such a boycott is carried out as this leader intimates, the government of the United States will be called upon to prosecute this political leader and his associates.

In his reply Attorney Francis Murphy admitted that such a boycott is being threatened, adding that there have been many instances of farmers being driven out of North Dakota because they would not accept the political doctrines of the leader of the district attorney had reference to and asking Mr. Hildreth why he had not acted.

Skin Sufferers Do Not Want Mere Temporary Relief

Of course, if you are content to have only temporary relief from the terrifying itching and burning of fiery, flaming skin diseases, then you are satisfied to remain a slave to ointments, lotions and other local remedies applied to the surface of the skin. Real genuine relief from eczema, tetter, scaly eruptions or any other form of skin irritations cannot be expected until you free your blood of the germs which cause these disorders. And for this purpose there is no remedy that gives more satisfactory results than S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that goes down to the source of every blood disorder and routs out the germs which cause the trouble.

S.S.S. is sold by all druggists. Begin taking it today, and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice without charge. Address Chief Medical Adviser, 155 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Nervous Breakdown

"I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly"—"My nerves are all on edge"—"I wish I were dead." How often have we heard these expressions or others quite as extravagant from some loved one who has been brought to this state by some female trouble which has slowly developed until the nerves can no longer stand up under it. No woman should allow herself to drift into this condition without giving that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

Read the Letters of These Two Women.

North East, Md.—"I was in ill health four or five years and doctored with one doctor after another but none helped me. I was irregular and had such terrible pain in my back, lower part of my body and down each side that I had to go to bed three or four days every month. I was very nervous, tired, could not sleep and could not eat without getting sick. A friend asked me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am sorry I did not take it sooner for it has helped me wonderfully. I don't have to go to bed with the pain, can eat without being sick and have more strength. I recommend your medicine and you are at liberty to publish my testimonial."

ELIZABETH WEAVER, R. R. 2, North East, Md.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from my milk so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children, and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."

COOLIDGE ASKS NATION IDEALS BE PRESERVED

Virginia is invaded by Republican Nominee for the Vice-Presidency

GIVES HARDING'S RECORD

Richmond, Va., Oct. 23.—Virgians who are "proud of what Washington and Jefferson did to establish the Union can trust Warren G. Harding to preserve and maintain it," declared Governor Coolidge, Republican nominee for the Vice-Presidency in an address here today detailing some historic achievements of the Old Dominion and Massachusetts for the past 200 years. He also spoke sympathetically of President Wilson and expressed the hope of his "speedy and complete recovery."

"Whenever Massachusetts and Virginia have stood together," he said, "they have advanced the welfare of America and the world by their example. Your statesmen have been the guiding influence which we have sought to follow. We shall never forget that it was your greatest son, the first American, George Washington, who came to take command of the colonial troops under the stars still standing in Cambridge and drove the last foreign invader from the soil of Massachusetts."

What He Did

"We shall never forget that when the war was done he presided over the convention which drafted the constitution of the union and that it was the prestige of his support that secured its ratification by the states. We shall never forget that what he was to the nation as a soldier and an executive, John Marshall was as a lawyer and a judge. Washington gave us a Constitution but Marshall gave us a government. What they gave it is ours to preserve."

The implication of "provincialism," he said, found "stern rebuttal" in the history of Virginia as well as Massachusetts. "Your whole history," he went on, "shows that the idea of isolation is repugnant to the genius of America. But your whole history shows that it is the purpose of America to remain forever free and independent. You do not shut yourselves in, nor shut the world out; but you are determined that only an American government shall govern America."

Referring to President Wilson, the Governor asked: "Should anyone be condemned here for upholding the views of Washington and Jefferson instead of those of Woodrow Wilson? Allow me here, in the state that gave him birth and that has added his name as the eighth of her sons to the list of Presidents, to express the sympathy of the party of which I am a member to President Wilson in his illness and to express the hope of his speedy and complete recovery."

Don't Banish Courtesy

"Political contests often beget bitterness and partisanship too frequently lead to misrepresentation and distortion. We can abhor courts and abolish kings, but we must not banish courtesy or forget to be gentlemen. There is too much involved in the contest in which we are now engaged; America means too much to us and to the world to misrepresent the issues or indulge in abusive personalities."

The welfare of our people in the immediate future and the destiny of our country for countless years depend upon the solution of the problems presented by this election. Let us meet them in the spirit of the Virginia patriots who preferred war and death to injustice and to tyranny. Let us meet them in the spirit of our fathers who for love of Virginia poured out their blood on all your battlefields from the Potomac river to the James, from Fredericksburg to Richmond, as a precious obligation to home and native state, as a sacrifice to a more perfect union.

"Yes, let us meet them in the spirit of that broad and divine patriotism that places the welfare of our country above every other consideration."

Survey Shows Immensity of Traffic Going in and Out of Metropolis

New York, Oct. 23.—New proof of the immense volume of traffic going in and out of New York daily is presented by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce. It is in the form of figures showing the number of motor vehicles that go daily to and from Manhattan Island.

Based on three separate surveys, it is shown that 154,700 motor cars and trucks enter and leave Manhattan daily. Of these, 139,900 cross the bridges that connect the island to the mainland, the rest reaching the heart of the city by ferry.

The average number of passengers, in a car is 2.7, and the trucks have an average of 1.14 tons. Manhattan and Queensborough bridges have the heaviest motor-traffic, which at times reaches as high as 134 cars an hour. Over the Manhattan spans the daily travel rate is 20,214 motor vehicles, and over the Queensborough connection the number of automobiles totals 17,594.

The extent to which traction lines are relieved by passenger cars is shown by the fact that 420,000 persons use the latter method of travel daily. This motor-traffic is equivalent to nearly one-third of the Interborough Subway business, which carries 1,367,000 fares daily. The passenger car figures take account only of vehicles entering or leaving the city and do not include trips within the city.

Trucking is heaviest in the early and middle part of the week, showing a slight falling off on Saturday to a negligible amount on Sunday.

Twenty-three per cent of the trucks counted during three days were traveling without loads, which suggests the need for fuller use of return loads, bureaus and possible lack of economy in planning trips on the part of the owner.

ELTINGE

That there is much more to the making of a motion picture than the part which the actors play is shown in the careful regard for atmospheric detail evident in the photoplay attraction which is at the Eltinge tonight.

Because of "detail" motion picture producers have established in their organizations research departments for the purpose of obtaining unimpeachable data for use in their productions.

J. Parker Read, Jr., who presents Louis Glaum in "Love Madness" at Eltinge Theatre, has one of the most elaborate research departments on the Pacific Coast.

S. Lincoln Lawrence, world traveler and student, was placed in charge of this important branch of the J. Parker Read, Jr., organization during preparations for the filming of "Love Madness," personally spent several weeks in exhaustive study and investigation prior to the actual "shooting."

Mr. Lawrence's visits to Chinatown's haunts both in Los Angeles and San Francisco, where he studied conditions, were fruitful. He also explored the mystic recesses of the underworld on the once famous Barbary Coast. Although the far-famed resort is no longer "wide-open," the "Coast" is reputed to be infested with many of its old habits. How Lawrence gained his various objectives no one definitely knows, but certain it is that he gathered a considerable mass of valuable data. It is no wonder that J. Parker Read, Jr.'s film productions are models of artistic, scientific and technical correctness.

How the League Issue is Splitting the Parties

The desertion of the Harding camp by a former Republican National Committeeman and a number of other prominent pro-League Republicans after Senator Harding's uncompromising rejection of the League of Nations in its present form in his Des Moines speech, convinces many observers that the League has taken its place at the eleventh hour as a clear-cut issue of the Presidential campaign. But if the League issue is now rending the Republican ranks, it is also a matter of common newspaper remark that earlier in the campaign it won over to the Harding banner many Irish-American and German-American voters who supported Wilson in 1916. And it will be remembered that it was on this issue that the Hearst papers abandoned their traditional Democratic allegiance.

In the Democratic camp Senator Harding's Des Moines speech was greeted with every appearance of rejoicing. The New York Times (Dem.) declares that "the election of Cox means a League of Nations acceptable to President Wilson, and Republican success apparently precludes American participation in the League," but affirms the Baltimore American (Rep.), all that Senator Harding has done in this matter has been to "turn his back upon the Wilson League and turn his face toward the Constitution and toward the Senate," and the New York Globe (Rep.), is "convinced that Senator Harding will be compelled to move for the ratification of the Treaty of Versailles."

A most interesting and instructive analysis and digest of public opinion on the League of Nations issue will be found in the leading article of THE LITERARY DIGEST for October 23d. Other striking news-features in this number are:

"I AM SO TIRED"

There are so many of us that get up in the morning and make the remark, "Oh! how tired I am." Oft times the answer can be found in some slight injury that has been received some time ago and not enough to attract our attention at the time. All of us can remember falls and injuries that we had in childhood and we should not wonder why we have a displacement of the small bones of the spine. If you are tired and cannot understand why, there is a reason. This reason is the failure of some organ in your body to function properly. This lack of proper function may be attributed to subluxations of some vertebrae which can easily be put in place and Nature will restore you to health.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

BOYCOTT AND TOWNLEY

Townley's threats of boycott are not new. They were employed in the campaign two years ago when John Steen cut Frazier's majority down to 17,000. Then Langer sliced his margin of control down to 5,000 and Townley is lashed into fury again. He renews his threats of boycott.

The league leaders have preached and practiced boycott for four years. Four years ago secretly and under cover and for the last two years arrogantly and viciously.

North Dakota is still within the union of these United States and is not going to be intimidated by the ravings of a bankrupt socialist, a convicted seditionist and a political craven. The federal law on boycott is still operative.

The boycott has been working secretly and openly for the last four years. It has quickened the opposition to Townley because all free born men rise instinctively when foul threats against their freedom are made.

Every independent anti-Townley newspaper has long felt the keen edge of legalized boycott. Some state papers are now but memories. The Brintonized boycott forced many fearless editors to close up shop and seek a living elsewhere where they could retain unsullied their ideals.

Other newspaper men more fortunately situated have been able to stay on the firing line and fight the boycott of the Townley-Brinton-Lemke triumvirate, responsible for the most sinister thrust at a free press that has ever been accomplished outside of Russia.

Merchants and bankers throughout North Dakota have felt the pressure of the Townley boycott. They faced it courageously four and two years ago. They stand resolutely against it today as this bankrupt socialist and leering seditionist utters his threats against the peace and safety of the commonwealth.

The merchants of North Dakota were first singled out for attack by the Beach bankrupt. Stores were established to break down their fearless stand against socialism and rule of the soviet. The bankers have stood loyally by them in their fight for free and open markets. Like newspaper owners, some of the merchants have liquidated and left rather than tolerate the campaign of abuse and hate conducted by this Beach opportunist. Others more fortunate by reason of location have remained on the firing line to combat the greatest curse that ever afflicted a state.

Townley failing to enlist many country bankers in his army of abuse, conceived the bank act, as Brinton conceived the newspaper bill, to drive opponents to the wall who honestly differed with them as to what was the best economic policy for North Dakota.

Townley scooped up millions of public money from the various localities, chiefly in those places which refused to support him and diverted it to the big money centers of Chicago, Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Could there be a more vicious boycott on the country bankers who were extending the limit of credit to farmers and merchants until the crops were harvested?

Verily Townley both utters and practices boycott. He practices it "within the law," through the passage of soviet measures that bristle with class favoritism. He utters it unbridled by law, because he seems to be the law in North Dakota and will be the law until God-fearing Americans in North Dakota rise in their wrath and sweep him and his minions from the seats of the mighty.

North Dakota has struggled under a class boycott for four years. Hampered as they have been, the people are putting up the greatest campaign since statehood. Every woman who feels the same desire for the maintenance of free institutions and to protect the homes and the schools against socialism is working shoulder to shoulder with the men. Their energy is an inspiration to the men who have been struggling with this insidious propaganda during the last four years.

Townley continues his abuse of the businessmen who refuse to follow him in his orgy of communism and anarchy. They honestly differ with this bankrupt socialist and convicted seditionist. As verile Americans they decline his leadership and will even submit to his campaign of boycott rather than sacrifice their ideals and self-respect.

Only one more week for active work remains. Don't let the energetic campaign abate. Meet Townley's unAmerican threat of boycott with the Yankee spirit of fight.

HOW'S YOUR PHOBIA?

Are you the sort of person who can't ride backward in a train or street car? Have you, in fact, a dread of a railway journey of any sort? Ha, you've been classified as a nut by Edwin L. Ash, noted authority on neurasthenics. You are a siderophobe!

All sorts of funny little panicky feelings, obstinate ways of doing things and quirks in your mental makeup have been classified, cataloged and labeled. If you jump into bed and pull the covers over our head when the thunder roars, you are suffering from batophobia. If you are uncomfortable alone in a broad, open space, you have agoraphobia, and, if a stuffy, crowded room makes you want to jump out the window, you are a claustrophobe.

So don't be lonely, bored, scared or foolish any more. Dignify your emotions with a stately title and maybe you can get a name for being the wisest person in your block.

FATHER OF BASEBALL

In the clamor and the noise arising from another world baseball series in October, stop a moment and think of this—

In another October, 96 years ago, there was born a child who lived to find himself called "The Father of Baseball." He was Henry Chadwick, baseball writer of another generation, but credited with doing so much toward establishing baseball on its present foundation that he earned the sobriquet that stuck to him to his death.

In a little plot in Greenwood Cemetery, in Brooklyn, N. Y., is a slab that tries to tell his story to future generations of fans. The marble is surmounted by a huge baseball. There's crossed bats on one side, and a mask. Chadwick died on April 20, 1906, but the good Chadwick did was not interred with his bones.

If he was the father of baseball, his child lives—the game proves it.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

There has been a great response all over Montana to the call of Senator Myers, and a recent meeting in Helena organized the Democratic Club of Montana to rid the party of its incubus. At this meeting Senator Myers said:

Montana must be saved. The Democratic Party of Montana must be saved. All the traditions of the American Nation, all the principles of Washington and Jefferson, are trembling in the balance and it remains for the Democrats of this State to save all that we love in Montana. We Democrats must put Americanism above party, especially at this time when the party name has been stolen. We Democrats stand for sound principles; we care nothing for party name. There is no cause for a hypocritical leader to come from outside the State to combine with the radical labor leaders here to concoct a scheme for the delivery of our State to forces of anarchy and revolution.

There is a clear call in that declaration for the Democrats of Minnesota, too. Are they not also ready to put Americanism above party? It is true, the situation in Minnesota is not quite identical with that in Montana, but the principle is the same. Here the real Republicans, aided by real Democrats, succeeded in smashing the scheme of the Nonpartisan League and the radical labor leaders to capture the party organization and name its ticket. But the attempt is now renewed in another direction. The same radical forces, led by Socialists and sovieters, are now attempting to seize the State Government by the election of a mongrel ticket, whose candidates sail under various appellations—Republican, Democratic, Independent, Farmer-Labor and so on.

Is it not the duty of all Republicans and Democrats who put Americanism above party to unite for the defeat of this coalition of bolshevize Minnesota? Is there not a Senator Myers among the Democrats of Minnesota to make the duty of the hour clear to them?

There is not a word to say against Mr. Hodgson or the other candidates on the Democratic ticket. In ordinary times they would be supported by their own partisans and by many others. But these are not ordinary times. There is one great issue—Is Minnesota to remain a sound American State run on American principles, or is it to be abandoned to the radical schemes and socialistic control the League movement?—Minneapolis enterprises of the unscrupulous agitators who Journal.

MRS. ROSE E. TUTTLE, of Portland, Maine, who says she feels like she has taken a new lease on life since taking Tanlac, her rheumatism and other troubles have been overcome.

"Tanalac is the grandest medicine on earth, and I just wish it was so every woman who suffers like I did could know what it will really do," said Mrs. Rose E. Tuttle, of 293 Congress Street, Portland, Maine, recently.

"No one will ever know how I suffered," she said. "My stomach was so disordered I had to be very careful about what I ate. Potatoes and other starchy foods would completely upset me. Frequently after meals I would have terrible pains in my stomach, my breath would get short, and I would have a depressed and uneasy feeling about my heart. Often I was troubled with pains under my shoulder blades and I frequently had bilious attacks.

"I also suffered with rheumatism, and this, together with my other troubles, was simply wrecking my health. I felt weak, nervous and run-down all the time, and seemed to be losing weight and strength every day. My sleep was poor, and often I was in such misery I wouldn't close my eyes all night long.

"Before I finished my first bottle of Tanlac I realized I had at last found the right medicine. My condition improved daily as I continued taking Tanlac, my appetite picked up and I was soon eating three hearty meals every day without suffering in the least afterwards. That horrible indigestion has disappeared, I am no longer nervous, I sleep soundly all night and feel splendidly all during the day. My strength has been increased until I can now do all my housework with ease. I am praising Tanlac every opportunity I have."

Tanalac is sold in Bismarck by Jos. Breslow, in Driscoll by N. D. and J. H. Barrette, in Wing by H. P. Hoffman, and in Strasburg by Strasburg Drug Co.

Do You Favor Arbitration or Continued Expensive Litigation

The Water Company's Office
Bismarck, N. Dak.,
October 23, 1920.

To the Honorable City Commission of the City of Bismarck, and to the People of the City of Bismarck:

For more than two years last past the City of Bismarck and the Water Company have been engaged in litigation, that up to date has cost in excess of $30,000. All of this litigation is still in process of further litigation and more is, from time to time being added. Soon another $30,000 will have been added to the budget of expense.

It is the opinion of the Water Company that in the end both the Water Company and the people will be losers if this policy of long drawnout, expensive litigation is to be continued. Why not stop it now? And what is all this trouble about anyhow?

The City says it wants to buy the waterworks from the Company. The Water Company answers that it is willing to sell to the City and name its price. The City answers that the price is too high.

Now to take care of just such a condition it is provided in charter and contract between the City of Bismarck and the Waterworks Company that in such case the matter shall be submitted to arbitration. The City to name one arbitrator and the Water Company to name one, and these two to name a third. If the two shall not agree on the third arbitrator, then he is to be named by the Judge of the U. S. States District Court, and that the award of this board shall be final and binding on both parties. What could be fairer and less expensive? If it was fair, then, why is it not fair now? The City agreed to this provision as well as the Company.

The Company is willing to live up to its contract. It will do more, if it can stop this useless, senseless, expensive lawing that leads to nowhere except grief to both parties.

The Company not only offers to arbitrate according to the terms provided in its charter and do it at once, but it will agree that if on account of the financial situation, the city cannot pay the award in cash, the Company will accept legal bonds of the City of Bismarck bearing 7 per cent annual interest and that if at any time within one year from date, the City can find cheaper money, the Company will accept face value with accrued interest for the same. In this way the City can, with practically no further expense, own the waterworks within thirty days from this date.

The Water Company will pay one-half the costs of the arbitration.

The Company now makes this public offer for the reason that previous informal like offers to the Commission have brought no response.

Think it over!

Nielson as superintendent of schools in Barnes county was recalled by Mrs. Bruce. How under her guidance the standard of the schools was raised, salaries of teachers increased and other reforms inaugurated.

Neil First to Talk

"Not a whisper was raised," against Minnie Nielson," said Mrs. Bruce until Neil Macdonald started to say things. And why did he say things about Miss Nielson? Because she defeated him for county superintendent of schools in Barnes county. I wish there was a law in this state that when Neil Macdonald is defeated fairly and squarely he be compelled to take his defeat like a man."

Shorn of Powers

"You all know how Miss Nielson has been shorn of her powers. How records have been taken from her. Which do you prefer? That your daughter's or your son's certificate be signed by Miss Minnie Nielson or an untricked minister?

"It is necessary for the women to protect the schools against the invasion of socialism. Restore power taken from Miss Nielson to the office and put her indomitable spirit back into the schools where it belongs."

Vicious Misrepresentations

Mrs. Bruce told of the vicious misrepresentations being made by the opposite. Women, she declared, are being advised to sign their ballots "I caution you women," she said, "not to sign your ballots for if you do that will nullify them. Don't be misled by false advisers. It is not necessary to sign the ballot in fact your vote will not count if you sign the ballot."

Mrs. Bruce will give a few days before election to the campaign of Miss Nielson. She was extremely active in club work in this state during the many years she resided here.

The women of Burleigh county are putting up a splendid campaign for the election of the entire anti-Townley, anti-socialist ticket. They are tireless in their energy.

Irish Railwaymen Refuse To Handle Munitions of War

Dublin, Oct. 23.—Refusal of Irish railwaymen to carry munition or armed men which from time to time holds up trains for which soldiers or police are rendered as passengers has now led to the stoppage of passenger trains over nearly 800 miles of railway.

Every time a train crew refused to carry soldiers, police or munitions they were dismissed. There are now enough men to keep the traffic moving and the service has had to be cut down accordingly. This has led to great inconvenience and traders are everywhere entering protests. An attempt has been made to relieve the situation by motor truck lines which in many places are regulated by Sinn Fein order.

WHEAT MAKES SOME GAINS

Chicago, Oct. 23.—The big export business of the past few days and the strength in foreign markets today caused a steady market for wheat. December started strong showing a gain of 1 to 1 1/4 cents over last night close. This advance was met with large offerings especially by a large elevator interest which resulted in an immediate set-back, which carried prices below yesterday's finish.

After showing 3-4 cents loss to a gain of 2 1-2 cents at the start the break carried prices down rapidly. A reaction took hold and checked the drop.

At the finish prices were down 2 to 2 1/2 cents below yesterday's finish.

EVENTS AND GOSSIP FOR THE FANS

5 CONFERENCE TEAMS PLAY IN GRIDIRON GAMES

Games This Afternoon Have Important Bearing on Championship

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Five undefeated western conference football eleven are among the six teams which met this afternoon in the only games which will have any bearing on the race for the Big Ten championship. Wisconsin plays Ohio state, last year's runner-up, at Columbus, Illinois, title winner in 1919, meets Michigan at Ann Arbor, and Iowa, defeated by Illinois last Saturday after winning from Indiana earlier in the season, clashes with Chicago here.

The Illinois-Michigan and the Ohio state-Wisconsin contests are generally considered the most important of the day, for these four eleven are all considered of championship calibre with little to choose between them. Victory for Illinois and Wisconsin or Ohio state would practically eliminate the defeated eleven from the race, while defeat for Illinois by Michigan would tighten the race considerably, for Illinois is looked upon as having an excellent chance to retain the championship won last year.

Michigan's strength is unknown, for it opens its conference season. It has, however, showed good scoring ability in practice games against weaker teams. All the other conference teams have off days and will continue practice for next week's contests.

In other midwestern games, Notre Dame plays Valparaiso at Notre Dame, Missouri meets Drake at Des Moines, Kansas plays Ames (Iowa) at Lawrence, Washington (St. Louis) clashes with Oklahoma at St. Louis and Nebraska tackles the South Dakota University eleven.

CARPENTIER'S WIFE DREAMED HIS VICTORY

Strong for "Thought Projection," She Says She Knew of Levinsky Battle

BY MILTON BRONNER, European Manager N. E. A. Oct. 23.—By "thought projection," Madame Carpentier, wife of Georges Carpentier, European boxing champion, who was here in Paris, the night by which her husband downed Battling Levinsky in New York. "My husband is a firm believer in 'thought projection,'" said Madame Carpentier, "and he always asks me to concentrate my thought and prayer on him wherever he may be."

Just about the hour Georges entered the ring, I dropped into an uneasy slumber.

Saw All Details

"During that sleep a dream came and I saw a great space, a clearing in the woods, in the center of which two men faced each other—my husband and a stranger. Later I identified the stranger as Levinsky. In the dream I saw all the details of the battle and particularly I remember the last round Levinsky was like a man mesmerized. My husband ceased evading his blows and landed punches on him until he was a mere huddled heap on the floor. I recall nothing else until awakened by the telephone and though I couldn't hear the long distance from London, I knew already how my husband had won."

When Carpentier meets Dempsey he will retire from the game, says his wife.

"We are looking forward to the time when we can lead the life of an ordinary Frenchman and his wife," says she.

Doesn't Like Life

"My Georges doesn't like a boxer's life and would have quit after our marriage except that he felt it a duty to France to win honor. He knew if he didn't go after Dempsey he would be called a quitter."

"He has one superstition. He thinks that his ring luck will leave him if he begins a fight without having made up any tin he may have had with me or with his mother."

"When he is not in training he devotes himself to his mother and me. He reads and plays and sings to me. He reads a great deal of poetry. It is a mistake to think of my Georges as one who lives to inflict pain. He prefers his home to the ring."

SOME OF THE HUSKIES

COACH RICHARDS GIVES WISCONSIN ANOTHER STRONG TEAM

N. E. A. Staff Correspondent Madison, Wis., Oct. 23.—Several veteran players holding down strategic positions with a number of promising youngsters give the University of Wisconsin one of its best looking eleven since the days of Phil King.

Already the Badgers have shown a whirlwind attack—demonstrated the day they swept the powerful Purple of Northwestern off their feet in the first few minutes of play.

On that particular afternoon at Madison, Wis., the temperature was around 55, and the play slowed up as a matter of course.

Weston Is Star End

In "Red" Weston Coach John Richards has one of the best ends in the west. He is a big, jumpy fellow and a deadly tackler. Weston happens to be an expert catcher of the forward pass, also.

Bunge, the center man, is an experienced player and rated as second only to Depler of Illinois. The third veteran of the team is Scott. In the Northwestern game Scott was a perfect demon on the defense and stayed up under the guff and heat until the final period was almost over when he had to be half led to the sidelines.

Two Vets in Backfield

Two Vets in the backfield—Davy at quarter and Elliott at right half—are still supported by high class material. Wisconsin is fortunate in having an exceptionally able substitute for Davy in Barr, a fast, heady and aggressive chap.

Wisconsin isn't quite certain yet as regards Williams, a halfback, but believes it has and Sundt at full round out an impressive backfield.

In Coach John Richards, himself a star Badger fullback more than 20 years ago, Wisconsin has a resourceful, aggressive leader.

Like Richards' Style

When Juneau was coaching the eleven he was a quiet, dignified type of boss over the Badgers. Then the school passed through an experience with coaches from Harvard who were fiery, tempestuous men and the players were in a turmoil a good share of the time.

Coach Richards strikes a happy medium between these two extreme styles. He is dignified but strikes the dramatic at times. Then say he has never been heard to swear even in the most trying times.

Tough Going Ahead

The Badgers have tough stepping in the schedule ahead. The battle with Ohio State at Columbus leads an interesting angle, for the Buckeyes are coached by Wilce, a former Badger star.

Then come Minnesota, Illinois, and Chicago in order. All these battles with the exception of the Illinois game will be played away from Madison.

If Coach Richards can drive his men through such a line of grid-machines to victory he certainly will have achieved a triumph.

personal bickering and internal ruction.

It might be good stuff for the magnates to turn their minds to the players themselves in this crisis.

There was a time when the club owners frowned on the ball players' organization. They didn't want to have their players organized and making a lot of demands and causing a lot of trouble.

But after all, the players may be in better shape to hand this crooked stuff and cure the gambling evil than either the magnates or the public.

The vast majority of the players are on the square and they are intelligent enough to know that their future success depends on the survival of baseball as the national game.

Give them a chance and they'll make the game honest and keep it that way.

Let the ball players have an effective organization and they'll find the crooks mighty soon and read them out of the game.

THINK IT OVER MAGNATES.

Although the United States uses twice as much petroleum as the rest of the world, its potential supplies are only one-seventh of the world's total.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 23.—The football teams of Center college and Harvard university, their goal lines uncrossed this season, entered their contest at the stadium today determined to keep a clean slate. The collegians, from Danville, Ky., were outwitted about ten pounds to the men but in Capt McMillan quarter-back, and Weaver, center, were possessed of two members of Walter Camp's 1919 All-American team.

The Insider Says

While the magnates of baseball are busily engaged in seeking a solution of their troubles it might be well to give them some housecleaning advice that will help them.

The recent meeting in Chicago and the coming season in Kansas City indicate that the business of putting the game in sanitary condition is going to be some job, not unattended by

BUSINESS MEN DEFY TOWNLEY RUIN THREATS

Every Person With Red Blood in Veins Resent Tactics, They Say.

TOWNLEY GROWS PROFANE

In an open letter to the members of the Retail Merchants Association of North Dakota, Fred P. Mann, president and W. A. Donnelly, secretary, answer the threats made by A. C. Townley to drive businessmen out of the state because they have political views differing from him.

"If there is an ounce of true American blood in your veins, you will do everything in your power to defeat A. C. Townley, the dictator and false leader of the farmers' movement in North Dakota," say the officers of the association in their letter.

Asserting that the interests of the farmers and the merchants are identical, they call on the merchants to prevent the bankrupt Socialist head of the Nonpartisan league from driving a wedge between two classes of North Dakota's citizens.

The letter follows:

October 23rd, 1920.

To the Members of the Retail Merchants Association of North Dakota.

Fellow Members:—

Mr. A. C. Townley, has repeatedly stated in the past few days that if he is defeated in the election on Nov. 2, 1920, he will return to North Dakota and put every merchant out of business by organizing a general boycott of the farmers against all the businessmen of the state of North Dakota.

What do you think of it men, when you, a free American citizen of the U. S. A., are told how you can vote, and for what political party you can work by A. C. Townley? If there is an ounce of true American blood in your veins you will do everything in your power to defeat A. C. Townley, the dictator and false leader of the farmers' movement in North Dakota, and rid the state of Socialism and mismanagement, putting the Nonpartisan league back into the hands of the farmers, where it will be properly managed, and a great benefit to all of the people of the state.

I am sure that every merchant in the state of North Dakota is a true friend of the farmer, our interests have always been one. We have worked together for the upbuilding and development of the great state of North Dakota, and I am sure that A. C. Townley or any other man cannot divide us into two opposing factions.

Very truly yours,

FRED P. MANN, Pres.

W. A. DONNELLY, Sec.

WILL DRIVE THEM OUT

Valley City, N. D., Oct. 23.—"We will drive them off the map," Mr. Townley told them today. Carrying his campaign into Barnes county, A. C. Townley, president of the Nonpartisan league, renewed the threat that he has pronounced from numerous platforms within the state since just prior to the last primary election.

Gathering about him about 200 Nonpartisan leaders representing practically every precinct in Barnes county, Mr. Townley told them "that today they were defeated in the November election. If the Independents get out and vote, he told the leaguers, the league candidates can not win in November."

Mr. Townley then told the leaguers what to do. He told them that the businessmen who oppose the league must be punished and declared "we will drive them off the map."

Just as he did at Grand Forks and at Michigan, and at Stanley, and at Minot, and at many other places, Townley said that he personally would come back to North Dakota after the election to supervise the process of driving North Dakota citizens out of their own state if they failed to support him in this election.

Mr. Townley became exceedingly rough at times. He was decidedly profane and many of the leaguers who left the hall after the gathering were pessimistic as to the effect of Mr. Townley's threat of a state wide boycott and at his proposal to dispossess people of the state of their business because of their opposing political views.

In Barnes county the prospects are increasingly strong for an independent victory in November.

INDUSTRIES OF SIBERIA HAVE BEEN DESTROYED

Swedish Merchant Finds Most Chaotic Condition Existing in Russia

London, Oct. 23.—Business men outside Russia are prone to be over-optimistic regarding immediate trade prospects in that country, according to a statement made to The Associated Press correspondent who recently crossed Russia, by the only foreign business man who was then in Siberia for the purpose of developing trade relations with the bolsheviks.

This man, Henrik Tornblom, a Swede, who represented American and Swedish concerns in Omsk, Siberia, for eight years previous to the Russian revolution, returned to soviet Siberia during the past summer.

Goods Worthless

His plan was to arrange for the exchange of Swedish farm machinery for vast supplies of wool, flax and furs which the bolsheviks stated had been gathered for shipment at Omsk. Arriving in Omsk he found the amount of goods available for export far below what he had expected, and that the goods available had been stored for years, many of the bales of hides having become worthless because of improper handling.

Ten thousand tons of raw material, mainly wool and hides, available for export from all Siberia, was Mr. Tornblom's estimate after his investigation at Omsk.

Basin of Foreign Trade

"Raw materials must be the basis of foreign trade in Russia and Siberia," said Mr. Tornblom to The Associated Press correspondent, "but the stories sent broadcast through Europe and America of the vast supplies of raw material stored along the Trans-Siberian railway all ready to be shipped to foreign countries in return for manufactured goods are myths."

"War, revolution and the resulting chaos of the last three years has resulted in nearly all the products of the country being put to use by the military leaders who have overrun the country from time to time."

"Potentially, of course, Siberia remains one of the world's great sources for material. For mineral wealth, for wool, flax, hides and valuable furs, the country to the east of the Urals cannot be surpassed, but there is little to export at the present time
